

Discover YYC's Southwest Neighbourhoods

Hey Neighbours of Knox! How well do you know the local businesses and parks in the Southwest neighbourhoods? Knox has featured 10 businesses or organizations and provided 3 to 4 clues to help you guess! The game's boundaries are within the neighbourhoods of Killarney, Glamorgan, Glenbrook, and Rutland Park. The first 5 people who guess all 10 organizations correctly and email them to Tiffany at ces@knoxcalgary.ca will win a $20 prize from the candy store: Sweet Fusion! Those who send in the correct 10 answers after will win a special sweet treat too!

Tag us @knoxpresbyterianyyc and use #NeighboursofKnox so we can find you on Instagram or Facebook!

We would also like to invite you to Knox's Summer Celebration; Music & Murals event on Saturday, August 29. This is also the location for the prize pick-up between 11-2 pm. Feel free to drop by and meet your neighbours! All necessary Alberta Health Services regulations will be in place with social distancing and plenty of PPE stations.

START SEARCHING!

1. Clues:

- a. In 2019, this organization was on a mission and diverted 23 MILLION pounds of waste.
- b. At this local Killarney business, you don't just shop, you can bring items to donate to the store!
- c. As they say, "one person's trash, is another person's treasure."

Answer: _____

2. Clues:

- a. There are seven community garden beds here that neighbours tend to.
- b. This association has been around since 1906 and the neighbourhood is kitty-corner to Glamorgan.
- c. A membership to this association allows for registration in Timbits Soccer Program, babysitting referral service, and a discounted rental hall

Answer: _____

3. Clue:
There's a magical butterfly garden in a front yard on 35 ave between 36 and 37 street.
How many butterflies are there? *bonus point for a picture.

Answer: _____

4. Clues:
- Scrubba dub dub! You may arrive dirty, but you'll leave clean!
 - $11+1 =$ lucky number twelve to ensure everyone has a turn in the bay.
 - This Glamorgan location is open 24/7 and is very proud of the West!

Answer: _____

5. Clues:
- Weekly smooth beats and clever raps hone their craft.
 - They make noise in Rutland park, but you might want to stick around and listen.
 - This club is a secret or disguised code like a cypher.

Answer: _____

6. Clues:
- You may enter shaggy, but you'll get cleaned up and leave looking your best.
 - Don't confuse this group as a quartet; they are masters of hair not vocal harmony.
 - This locally owned business near Mount Royal specializes in trendy cuts.

Answer: _____

7. Clues:
- You should consult this business before any hiking, camping, or outdoor activities to discover necessary equipment for your next adventure.
 - This business has been open for over 40 years and is located in Glamorgan across from Petro-Canada.
 - Norwegian immigrants opened this business specializing in cross country skiing, hiking and climbing.

Answer: _____

8. Clues:
- This Glamorgan business has been open 48 years!
 - You call on these people when your home needs renovations and are looking for something warm on your feet.
 - The business name starts with the first two letters of the alphabet.

Answer: _____

9. Clues:

- a. This Rutland business wants to make sure your body is moving to the best of its abilities.
- b. You may enter grumpy, but you'll leave feeling like an angel with a halo.
- c. Their services can range from popping and cracking of the spine to a relaxed therapeutic massage.
- d. If you've been working from home and your hunched back may need a tune up, be prepared for a heavenly experience. They have also helped patients with sport or work injuries.

Answer: _____

10. Clues:

- a. This isn't your typical garden. Although it continues to grow, it can never die.
- b. It is diverse in colors and filled with positive messages.
- c. Its home is next to Knox.
- d. It is there because we know community rocks!

Answer: _____

Goodluck! See you Saturday, August 29 from 11- 2pm at Knox for live entertainment and mural painting!